Lawrence died sometime in the summer of 1714. There is on record a deed of the heirs of Jan Gardinier (Alb. Co., 5:226), acknowledged before Lowrens van Alen, justice of the peace, at Kinderhook 16 May 1714, and Lawrence's will was probated 27 Oct 1714. He therefore died sometime between these two dates. Pratt's burial record contains no reference to him, so he was probably buried on the farm at Kinderhook.

Lourens married Elbertje, daughter of Evert Luycase Backer before 1670, as we have already seen. From the census of 1697 it is evident that she was dead in the latter year. Lawrence and Elbertje had ten children, as follows:

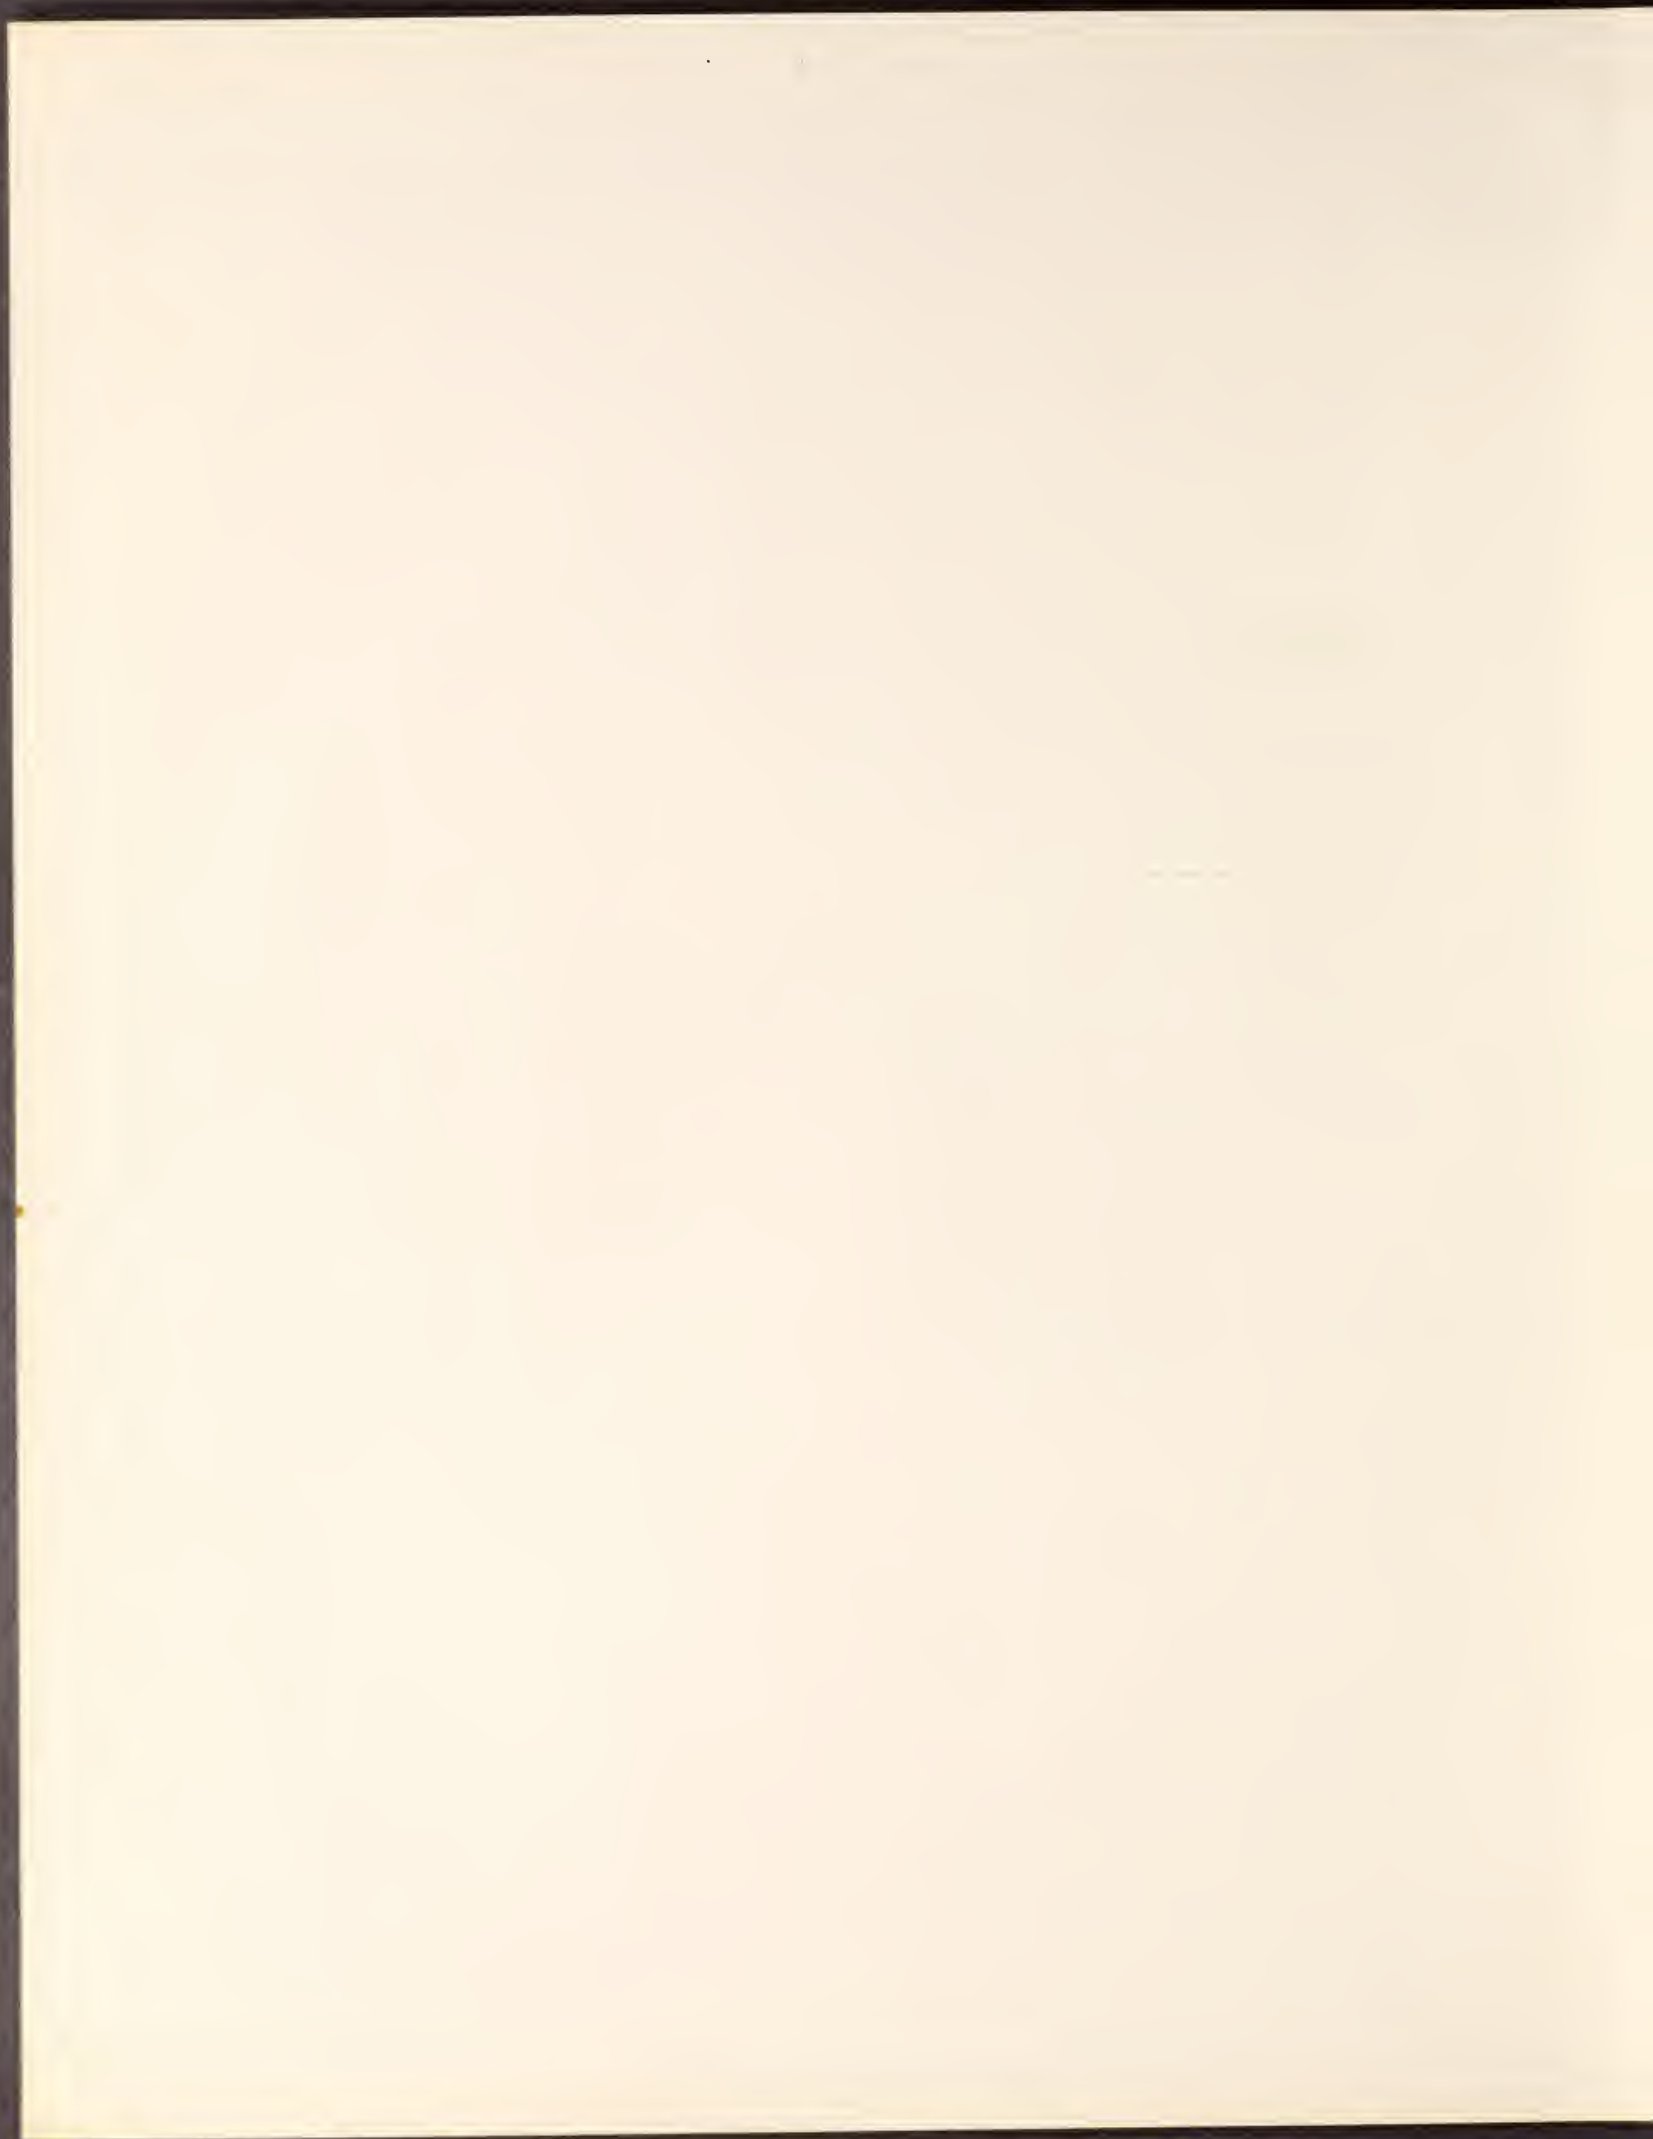

- (10). i. Johannes, b. about 1670.
- (11). ii. Catharine, b. about 1672.
- (12). iii. Evert, b. about 1674.
- (13). iv. Peter, b. about 1677.
- (14). v. Stephen, b. about 1680.
- (15). vi. Lucas, b. about 1682.
- (16). vii. Jannetje, b. about 1684.
- (17). viii. (Christina), bap. Albany 7 Nov 1686; sp. Sara de Wandelaar and Isaac Verplanck.
- (18). ix. Lourens, bap Albany 5 Feb 1688/9; sp. Catrina van Alen (4) and Gerrit van Esch.
- (19). x. Jacobus, bap. Albany 23 Oct 1691; sp. Johannes van Alen (8) and Catryn van Alen (4).

Of the above children, Lourens probably died young. Beyond the entry of his baptism we find absolutely no reference to him. Lawrence and Elbertje had a child baptized at Albany 7 Nov 1686, but by some oversight the Christian name of the child was not entered. The child was undoubtedly Christina, as I have indicated above.

Of Lawrence's daughters:

Catharina, the eldest, married Albany 17 May 1696 Melgert, son of Melgert Wyaantse vander Poel and Arriantje Verplanck (daughter of Isaac Verplanck and Maria Vigne.) They had the following children, all baptized at Albany:

- i. Elbertje, bap. 3 Feb 1696/7; sp. Lourens van Alen (3) and Catalyntje Schuyler.
- ii. Arriantje, bap. 3 Sep 1699; sp. Melchert vander Poel (gd-f) and Abigail vanden Vos.
- iii. Lourens, bap. 26 Jan 1701/2; sp. Willem van Alen (9) and Marritje van Alen (his wife).
- iv. Maria, bap. 10 Jan 1703/4; sp. Gerrit Wynaandse vanderpoel, Willem Gysbertse and Catharine vanden Berg.
- v. Johannes, bap. 4 Mar 1705/6; sp. Johannes van Alen (8) and Geertruy Groesbeck.
- vi. Abraham, bap. 9 Feb 1707/8; sp. Abraham Wynaandse and Catherine vander Poel.
- vii. Jacobus, bap. 17 Apr 1709; sp. Abram Schuyler and Maria van Dyck.
- viii. Ysaack, bap. 14 Oct 1711; sp. Stephen van Alen (14) and Maritje van Alen (his wife).
- ix. Catryna, bap. 16 Dec 1716; sp. Jacobus van Alen (19) and

13. Peter van Alen,

Son of Lawrence van Alen (3) and Elbertje Backer. Born Albany about 1677; died Kinderhook (after 17 Jan 1747/8 (?).)

Peter van Alen took the oath of allegiance in 1699. (Annals, 3:276.) He lived "to ye southward of Albany". 27 May 1716 he was a member of the consistory of the church at Kinderhook. His name appears on the list of freeholders of Kinderhook 11 J8 1720. 5 Feb 1723/4 Casper Roush, of Kinderhook, mason, sold to Peter van Alen, of Kinderhook, yeoman, for £90, a tract of land & "in Kinderhook, above Pompoenick, bounded west by the great kill, and so by course to the east side of the plain now belonging to the heirs of Dirck Hendrickse de Bye, and on the south, or south end, to the swamp or crupleboss of Peter Vosburgh; the whole having been bought by Roush 1 Sep 1716 from Jan Dillemont. (Alb. Co., 6:78.)

This is all that can be found in the records concerning Peter. The property which he inherited was, as we have seen, considerable, and he appears to have held it intact until his death. Tradition says that he lived in the Kinderhook valley in the neighborhood of what is now Chatham Center. The date of his death is not certainly known; but if the sponsor of the first child of Sander van Alstyne and Peter's eldest daughter, Elbertje, was the grandfather, he lived until after Jan 1746.

"Peter van Alen, young man, born at Albany, and Josina Dingmans, young woman, born at Kinderhook, both living at Kinderhook, married at bride's father's house 7 Jan 1704/5." (Albany records.) Josina Dingmans was ~~the~~ a daughter of Adam Dingmans and Aeltje Jacobse Gardinier, and a sister of Sara Dingmans, who married Peter's elder brother John.

Peter van Alen and Josina Dingmans had children baptized Albany:

- (43). i. Lourens, bap. 19 May 1706; sp. Melchert vander Poel and Catharina van Alen (11).
- (44). ii. Adam, bap. 21 Aug 1709; sp. Johannes Maase Bloemingdaal and Geertruy Bloemingdaal.
- (45). iii. Elbertje, bap. 17 Feb 1711/2; sp. Stephanis van Alen (14) and Sara Dingmans (wife of John (10).)
- (46). iv. Alida, bap. 29 Aug 1714; sp. Cornelis Maassen and Cornelia Gardinier.
- (47). v. Lucas, bap. 21 Apr 1717; sp. Willem van Alen (9) and Maria van Alen (his wife).

They had the following children baptized Kinderhook:

- (48). vi. Christina, bap. 17 Feb 1721/2; sp. Jacobus van Alen (19) and Arriantje vander Poel.
- (49). vii. Peter, bap. 13 Feb 1723/4; sp. Lambert Huyck and Anna Huyck (his wife).
- (50). viii. Catharina, bap. 14 May 1727; sp. Johannes van Deusen and Christina van Deusen (17).
- (51). ix. Stephanis, bap. 4 (14 ? ) Apr. 1731; sp. Arent van Dyck and Heyltje van Dyck ( ).

All of these children attained maturity and married, with the exception of the son Peter (49), who appears to have died in infancy. (45)

Elbertje, the eldest of Peter's daughters, married Kinderhook 2 Nov 1733 Sander (bap. Albany 5 Jan 1701), son of Abraham van Alstyne and Marritje Mattheus van Deusen (see note 4, under John (10).) They had children:

- i. Maria, bap. Kinderhook 25 Oct 1734; sp. Abraham van Aalstyn (gdf.) and Josyna van Alen (gdm.)
- ii. Elisabeth, bap. Kinderhook 15 Jan 1735/6; sp. Jac. v. Alen (19) and Lena van Alen (his wife).
- iii. Abraham, bap. Albany 3 Sep 1738; sp. Johannes van Aalstyn (uncle) and Marietje van Aalstyn (his wife).
- iv. Elisabeth, bap. Coxsackie 1741; sp. Lourens van Alen (43) and Styntje _____.
- v. Peter, bap. Coxsackie 5 Je 1743; sp. Lucas van Alen (15) and Tryntje van Aalsteyn (wife of Adam (34).)
- vi. Joany, bap. Kinderhook 6 Jul 1745; sp. Lawrence van Alen, jr., ( ) and Elbertche van Alen ( ).
- vii. Seyntje (Josina), bap. Claverack 17 Jan 1747/8; sp. Peter van Alen (13?) and Catharine van Alen ( ).
- viii. Lourens, bap. Claverack 6 May 1750; sp. Marten van Aalstyn and (uncle) and Cornelia van Deuzer, "widow of L. van Alen" (43).
- ix. Alexander, bap. Kinderhook 5 Jan 1752/3; sp. Isaac van Alstyne (uncle) and Maria, "dochter van Isaac van Alstyne."

(46)

Alida, Peter's second daughter, married (no record) Johannes (bap. Albany 24 Mar 1706) son of Gysbert Andries Scherp (Sharp) and Lysbeth Goewy (daughter of Jan Salmonse Goewy and Caatje Loockermans.) They had children, all bap. Kinderhook except the last:

- i. Gysbert, bap. 10 Oct 1741; sp. Adam van Alen ( ) and Jannetje Scherp (aunt).
- ii. Peter, bap. 11 Nov 1744; sp. John Cooper and Styntje van Alen ( ).
- iii. Lourens, bap. 25 Jan 1746/7; sp. Cornelis Scherp (uncle) and Annatje Scherp.
- iv. Seyntje (Josina), bap. 10 Feb 1749/50; sp. Stephen van Alen ( ) and Cornelia van Alen (widow of Lawrence (43).)
- v. Peter, bap. 3 Jul 1752; sp. Dirk Vosburgh and Alida van Alen (37).
- vi. Johannes, bap. Coxsackie 31 Aug 1755; sp. Johannis Hoes and Elbertje Hoes.

This last named Johannes Scherp married Baytje van Alen (46), daughter of Lucas van Alen (47) and Anna van Deusen.

Note 1.

Gysbert Scherp was the son of Andries Hansen Scherp and perhaps Neeltje _____. He married Albany 16 Oct 1701 Elisabeth daughter of Jan Salmonse Goewy and Caatje Loockermans. They had the following children, all baptized Albany except the last four three:

- i. Andries, bap. 30 Aug 1702; sp. Aryen Oothout and ~~Kammertje~~ Lammertje Oothout.
- ii. Catharina, bap. 20 Aug 1704; sp. Jan Rees and Sara Goewy.
- iii. Jan Salmonse, bap. 24 Mar 1706; sp. Lourens Scharp and Catalyntje Winnen; m. Alida van Alen.
- iv. Cornelis, bap. 30 May 1708; sp. Hendrik van Rensselaer and Catharina van Rensselaer.
- v. Philip, bap. 30 Oct 1710; sp. Hendrik Hanse and Debora van Dam.
- vi. Laurens, bap. 19 Oct 1712; sp. Wessel ten Broeck and Catie ten Broeck.
- vii. Neeltje, (bap. not found); m. Johannes Schermerhorn.
- viii. Maria, bap. 25 May 1723; sp. Jacob Goewy and Catalyna Goewy.
- ix. Elisabeth, bap. Kinderhook 27 Apr 1725; sp. Stephanis van Alen (14) and Elisabeth Tenyt (wife of Lucas van Alen (15).)
- x. Hendrik, bap. Kinderhook 14 May 1727; sp. Hendrik Lebauw and Sara van Alen (wife of John van Alen (10).)
- xi. Jannetje, bap. Kinderhook & _____ 1731; sp. Lourens van Schaak and Jannetje van Schaak.

Cornelis above, the fourth child of Gysbert Scherp and Elisabeth Goewy, married Immertje Merschel, and had a son Gysbert, bap. Coxsackie _____ 1743, who married Elbertje van Alen ( ), daughter of Lawrence van Alen (43) and Cornelia van Deusen.

(110) Bata, Lucas's eldest daughter, married Kinderhook 25 Dec
1787 John (bap. ), son of Johannis Scherp and (see note) and . They had:
i. Johannis, bap. Kinderhook 26 Nov 1789; sp. Cornelis Schernerhorn and Syntje Scherp( ).
(And probably others.)

John Scherp removed to Hastings Co., Ontario, Canada, where he was a merchant for many years. The name is now spelled Sharp.

52. Lawrence van Alen, son of Stephen van Alen (14) and Maria Muller. Baptized Albany 30 Oct 1703; died Kinderhook about 1740.

Lawrence seems to have died early. Peter Hogeboom, in his will, made 20 Je 1747, proved 23 Feb 1758 (Pernow's Calendar #916), speaks of his daughter Arriatje, "widow of Lours. van Alen." 18 Aug 1740 at Kaatsbaan Arriantje van Alen and Jacob van Alen (50) stood sponsor for Magtöl, daughter of Abraham Springsteen and Antje Smidt, and again 26 Mar 1744 at the same place the same couple acted as sponsors for Elisabeth, daughter of John Kendel and Sophia Elisabeth Hof. This makes it probable that Lawrence died 1740 or earlier and that his widow was living under the protection of her husband's brother Jacob. Lawrence seems to have left no will and there is no reference to him in the land records.

He married Arriantje (bap. Albany), daughter of Peter Heese Hogeboom (see note p. ) and Jannetje Muller. He had one child:
(129). i. Maria, bap. Kaatsbaan 21 Apr 1736; sp. Johannes Scherrerhorn and Jannetje van Alen ( ).

Arriantje Hogeboom, widow of Lawrence van Alen, married Kingston 20 May 1748 Johannes Schut.

(129) Maria, Lawrence's only child, married Johan Jost Hergheimer (Herkimer) (bap. ), son of Herkimer (see note) and . At Kaatsbaan 6 Oct 1759 Johan Jost Hergheimer and his wife Maritje van Alen were the sponsors of Henrik, son of Thomas van Steenberg and Christina Laboutie. Maria had the following children, all baptized at Stone Arabia:

- i. George, b. 26 Apr 1761, bap. ; sp. John Joost Hergheimer ( ) and wife Catherine.
- ii. Ariana, b. 11 Je 1763; bap. ; sp. George Herkimer ( ) and Annatje ten Broeck.
- iii. Lawrence, b. 23 Jul 1767; bap. ; sp. Pieter Schuyler and Lisa Barbel.
- iv. Maria, b. 6 Apr 1769, bap. ; sp. Abraham Rosencrants and wife Maria.
- v. John Nicholas, b. 24 Jan 1771, bap. ; sp. John Nich. Hergheimer ( ) and wife Maria.

Note.

Jurgh (George) Herkimer and wife Madaline ~~emigr~~<sup>Em</sup> ~~imm~~igrated from the Palatinate of the Rhine in 1721. Their son Johan Jost Herkimer and wife Catharine came in 1721 with the third immigration of Palatines and settled at German Flats. He died in Aug 1775, leaving thirteen children:

- i. Nicholas, m. Lany Tygert; m. 2d Myra Tygert.
- ii. Henry, m. Catharine _____
- iii. George, m. Alyda Schuyler.
- iv. John Joseph, m. Maria van Alen.

(153) Alida, youngest daughter of Cornelius, married Linlithgow 24 Sep 1769 (license 23 Je 1769) Peter S. (bap. Coxsackie 5 Je 1743), son of Sander van Alstyne and Elbertje van Alen (45). Peter van Alstyne was a blacksmith by trade and a strong Tory. He removed to New York City to be within the English lines, and upon the evacuation of the city went to Quebec and later to the Bay of Quinte country in Ontario. He commanded a corps of armed bateaumen in the English service and was known as Captain Van Alstyne. The children of this couple were:

- i. Alexander, bap. Kinderhook 11 Nov 1770; sp. John S. Van Alstyne (uncle) and Elbertje Goes.
- ii. Alida, bap. Kinderhook 2 Mar 1772; sp. Cornelius van Alen (34) and Catharina van Alen. ( ).

1. (1). John van Alen, of Utrecht.

This is the presumed name of the two Van Alen brothers who immigrated in 1658.

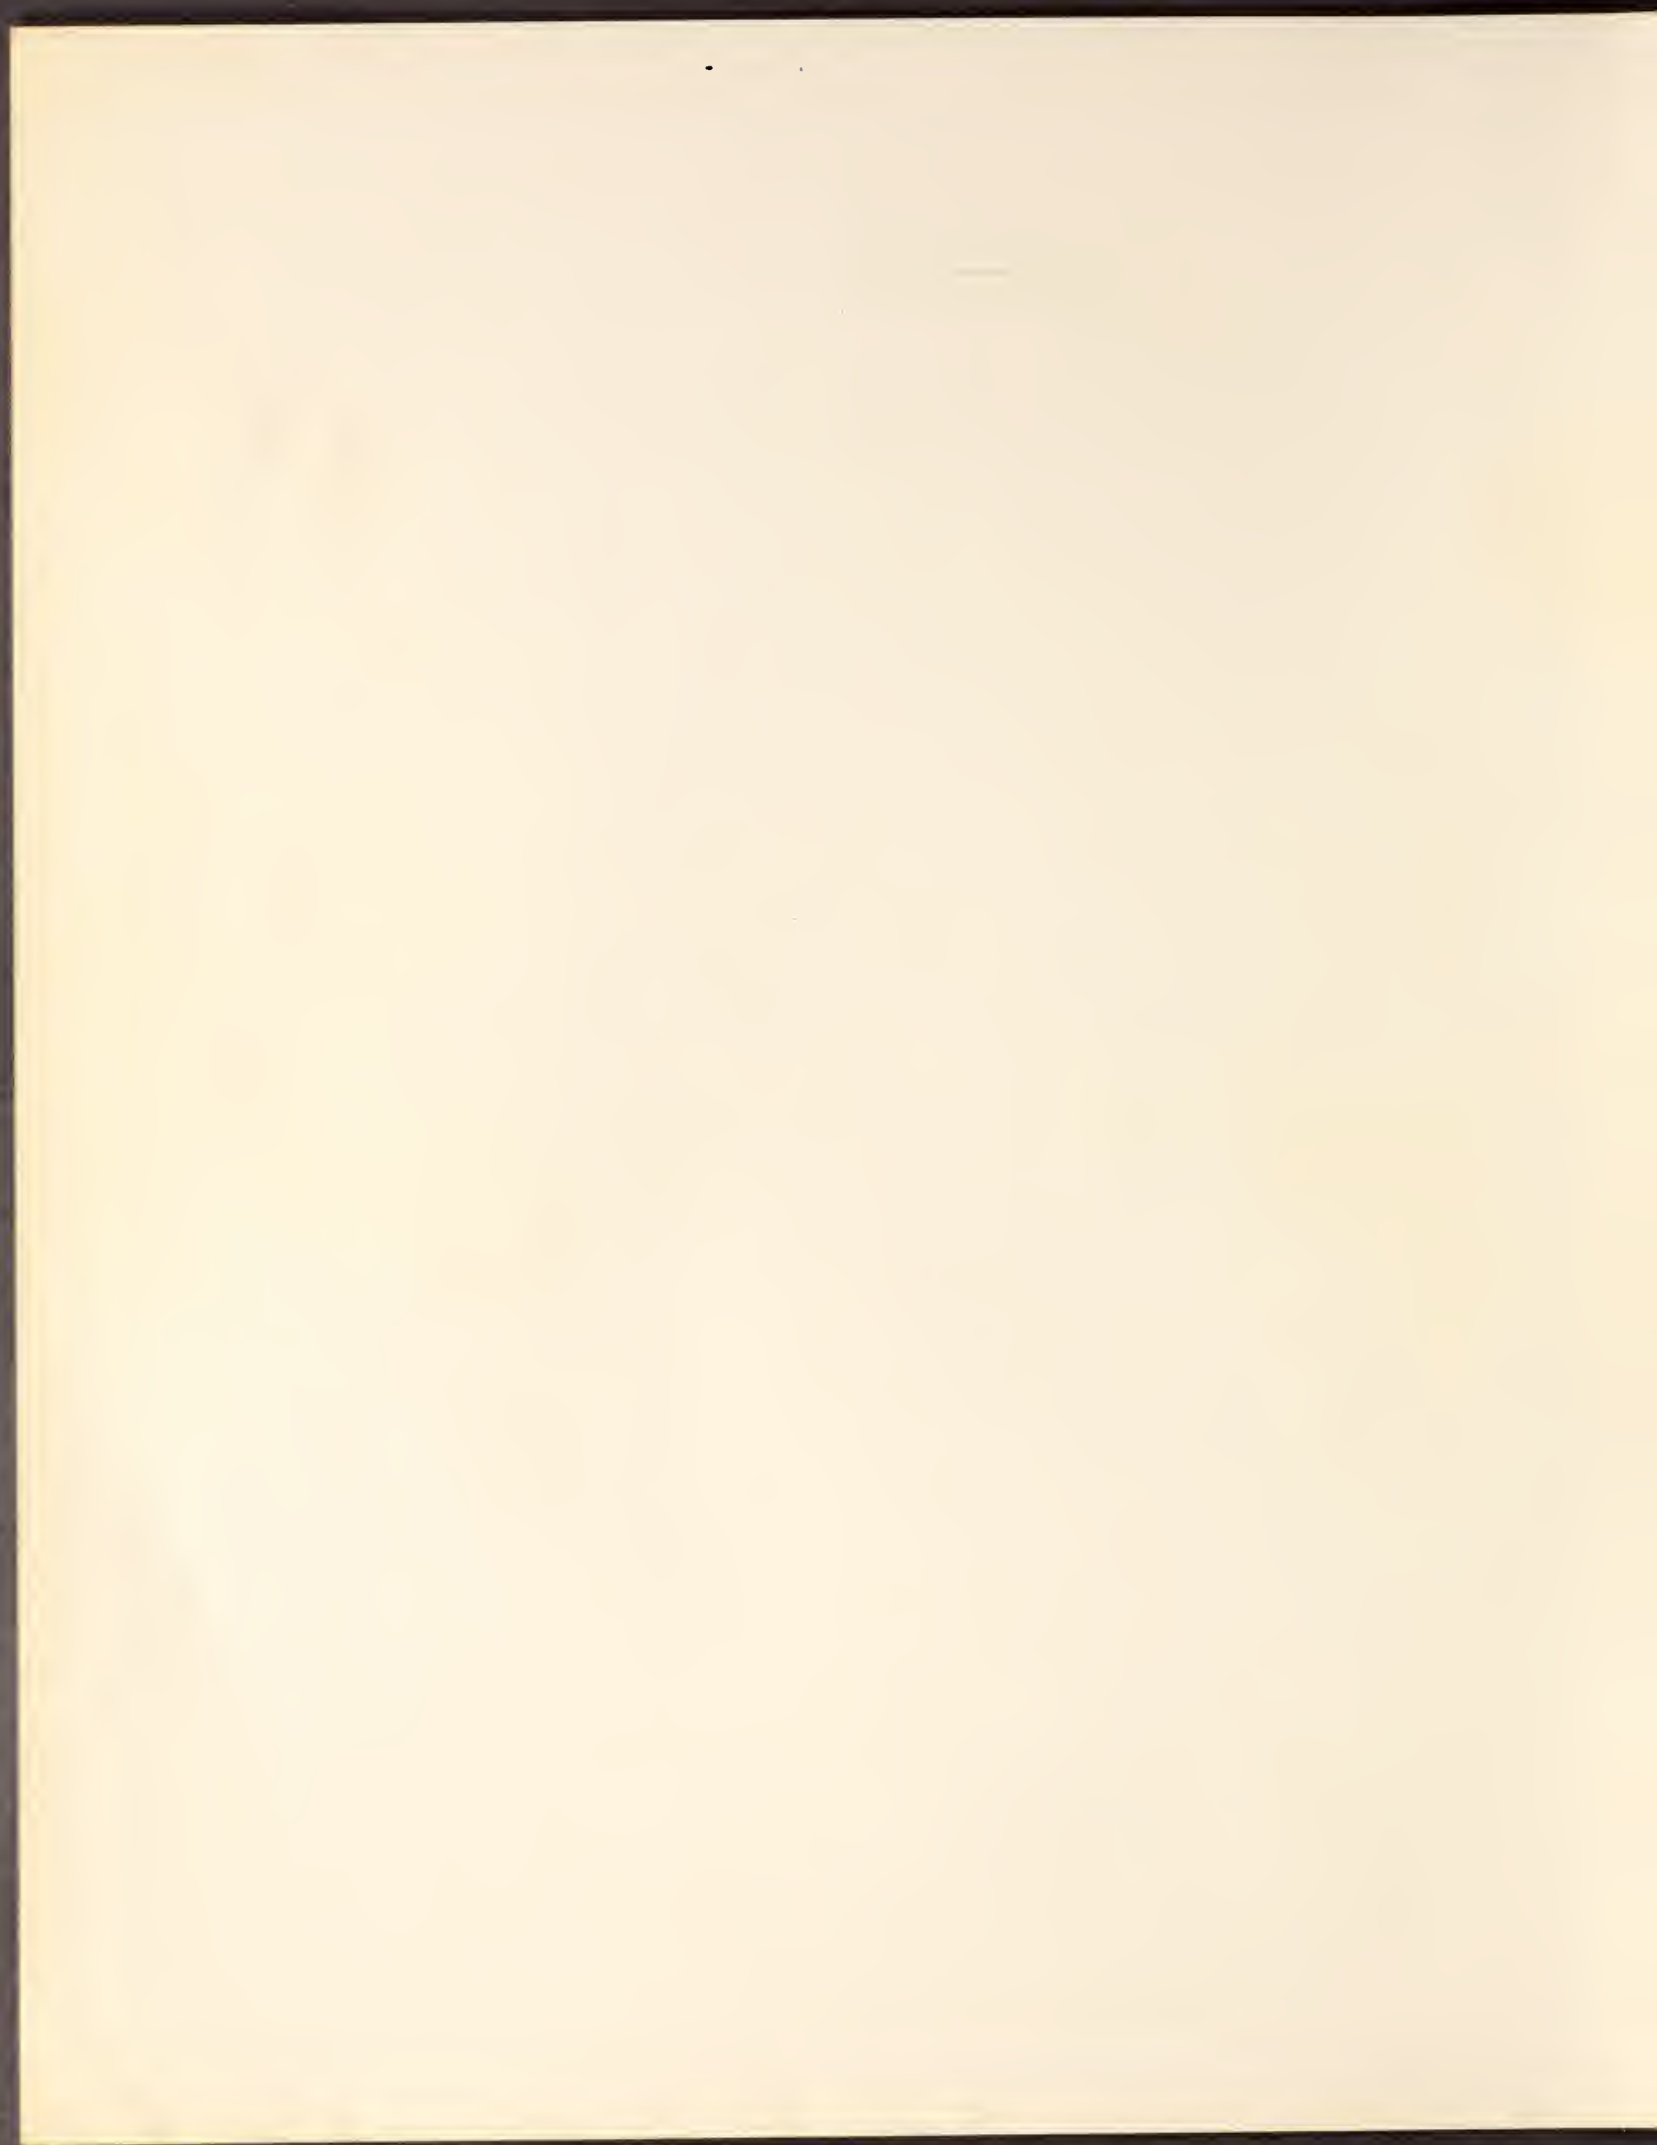

Nothing is known in regard to him. His Christian name, John, is determined by the fact that both of his sons named one of their first children John, a coincidence not likely to occur unless their father's name was John.

The statement has frequently been made and generally accepted that the father of the Van Alen brothers was "Lourens van Alen, merchant of Amsterdam," and quite a tissue of romance has been woven around this entirely mythical person. That Peter and Lawrence van Alen, of Albany, were the sons of Lourens van Alen is an obiter dictum of Professor Jonathan Pearson, in his "Contributions to the Genealogies of the First Settlers of Albany," made upon quite insufficient evidence, which has served to mislead nearly all succeeding genealogists. There ~~was~~ was a Pieter Lourensen, and also a Lourens Lourensen, at Albany in the early days, but the references to them clearly antedate the arrival of the brothers at New Amsterdam in 1658. Moreover, it may be stated as a positive fact, that in no ~~known~~ instance is either Peter or Lawrence known by a patronymic. In every instance their surname, van Haelen, van Aelen, van Alen or van Ale, is given.

Peter van Alen is known to have had three sons, but not one of these was given the name of Lourens. Had Peter's father really been Lourens, this neglect to name a child after him would have been an almost unheard of violation of a pious Dutch custom. Similarly, Lawrence van Alen named his eldest son John, the next after his wife's father, a third after his wife's grandfather, two others after persons whose relationship to him is not known, and the name Lourens was finally given to his sixth and next-to-the-last son. ~~Here again, had~~ Lawrence been really the son of Lourens van Alen, the name would have been given to one of the two oldest sons. The circumstance that Lawrence relegated the name to almost the very last is even stronger evidence against the existence of "Lourens van Alen, merchant of Amsterdam," than Peter's entire ignoring of the name. We may safely conclude that, whatever the name of the father of Peter and Lawrence van Alen was, it certainly was not Lourens or Lawrence.

John van Alen had sons:

- (2). i. Peter, born about 1633.
- (3). ii. Lawrence, born about 1642.

3. Lawrence van Alen,

son of John (1) of Utrecht. Born in Holland about 1642; died at Kinderhook 1714.

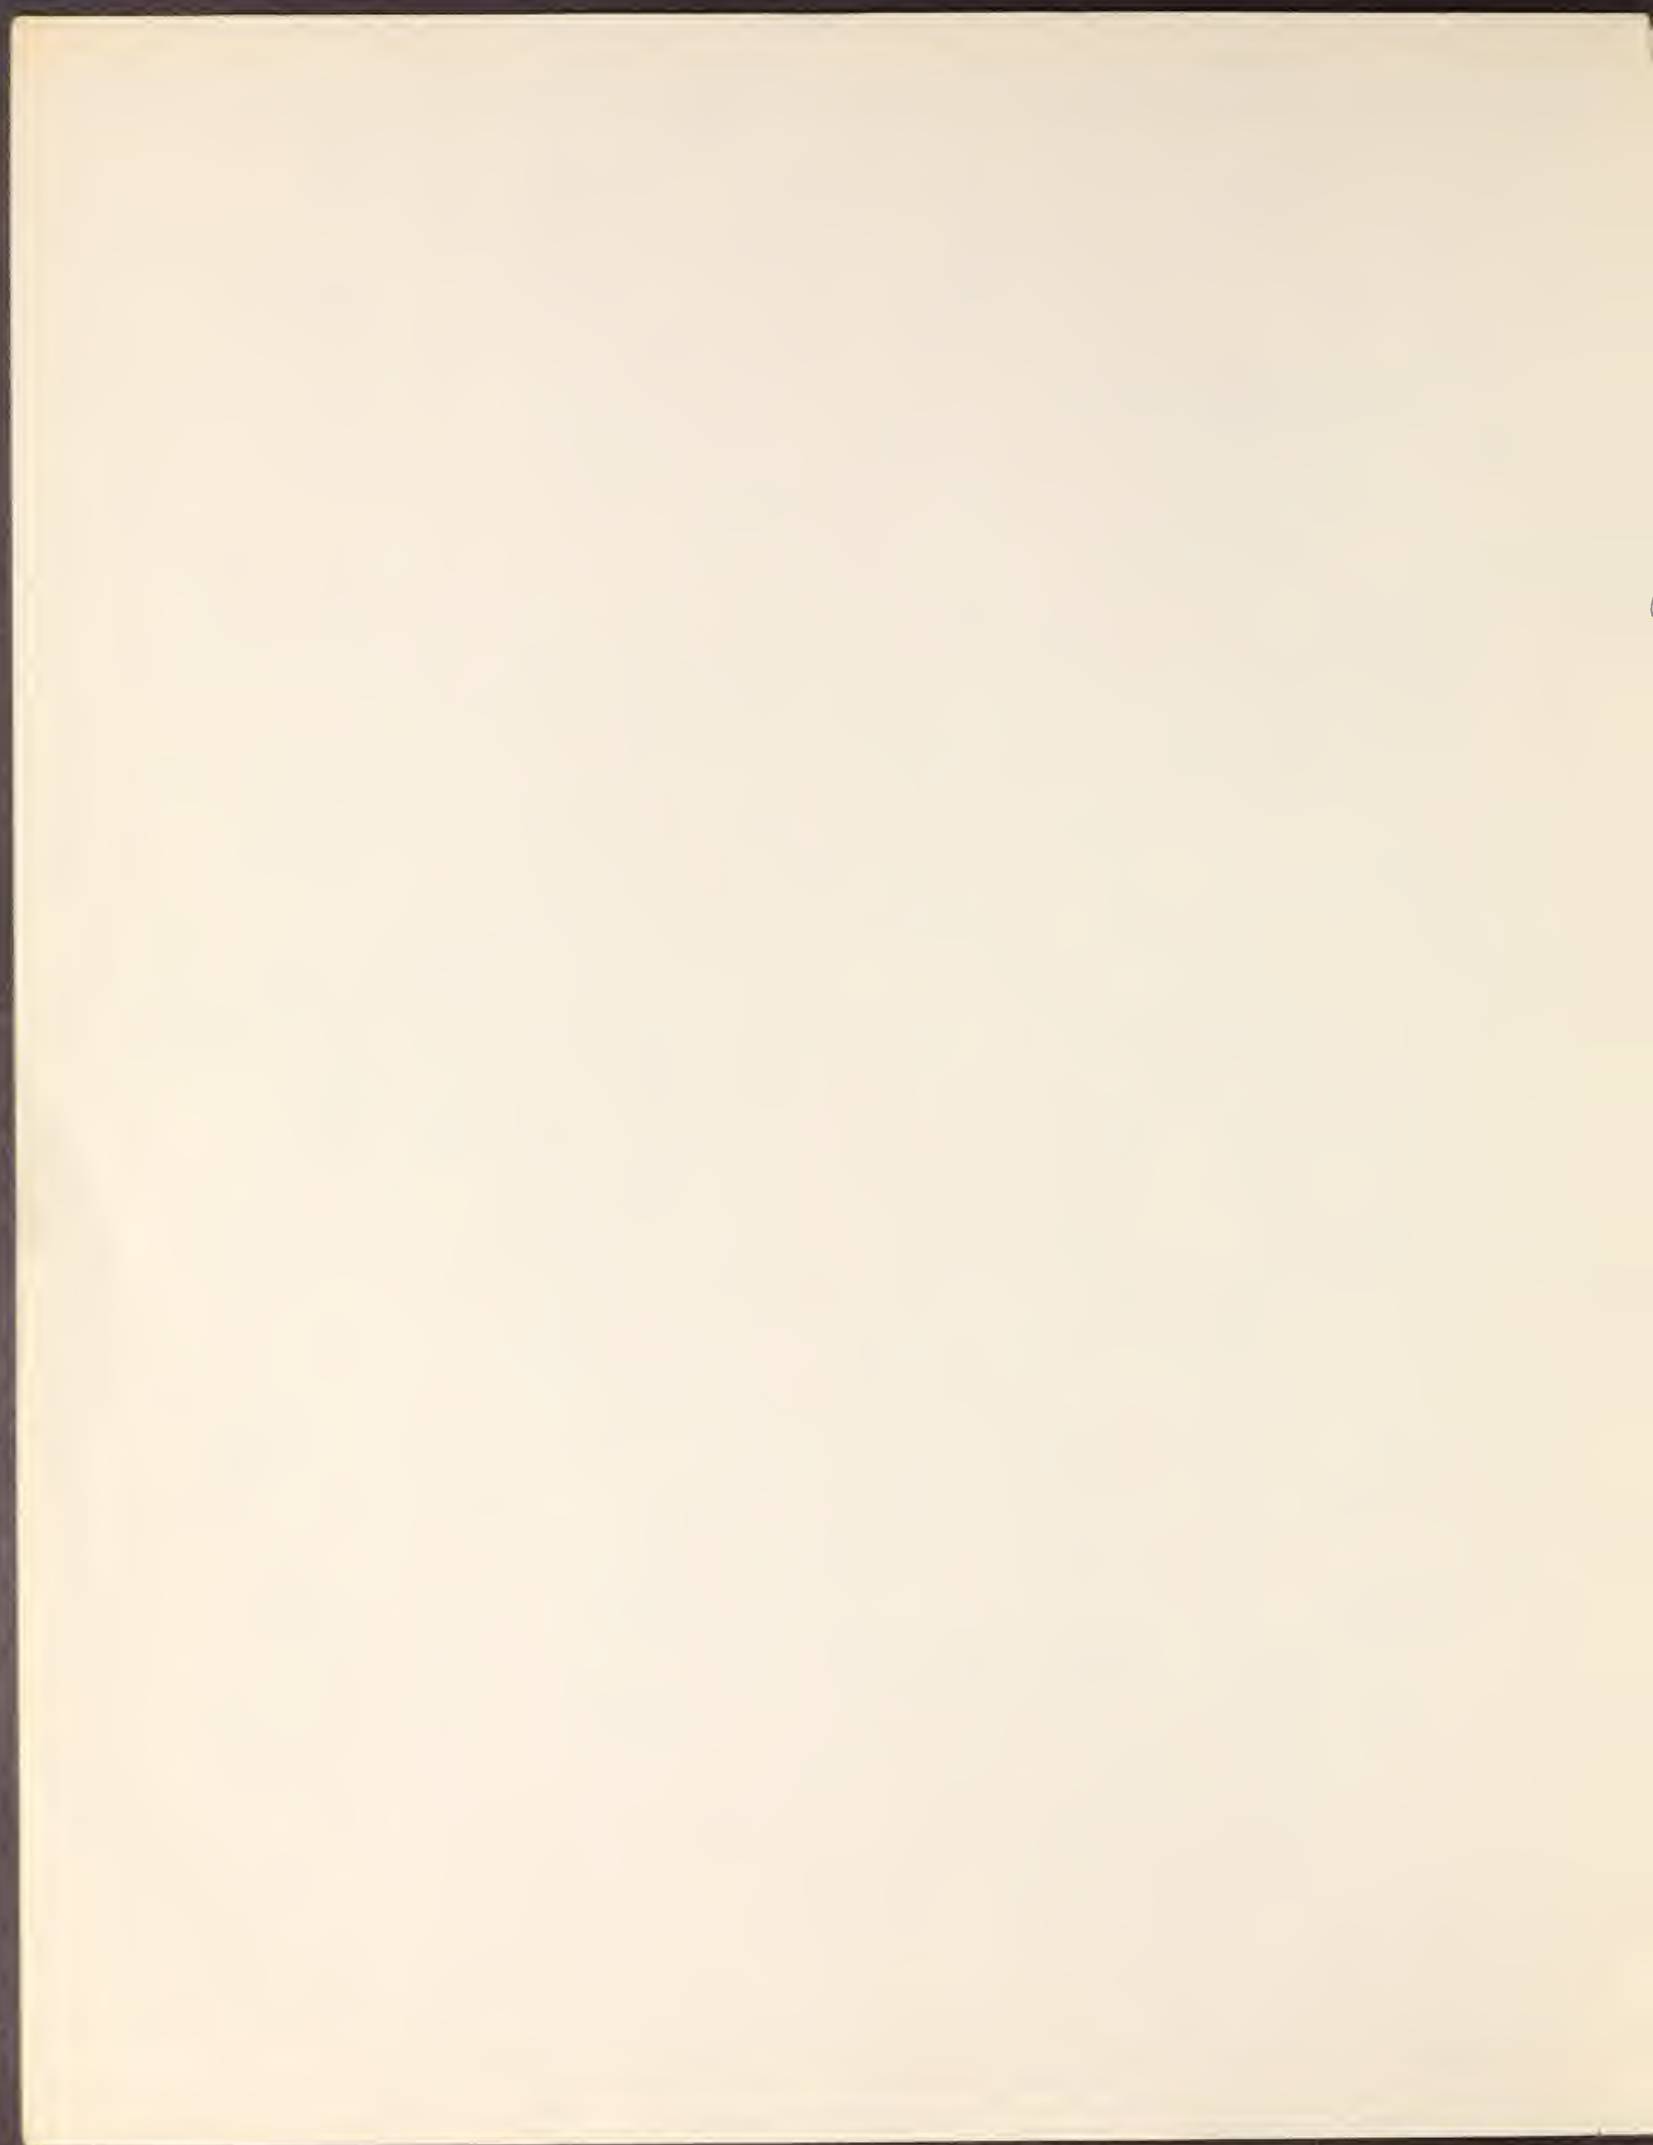

There is scarcely room for doubt that Lawrence was the "boy" who was brought over by Pieter van Haelen in the "Vergulde" "Dever" in May 1658. As we have already seen, he was in Albany ~~in~~ with his brother in May 1660, when he joined in the petition against white brokers being allowed to roam the woods. For the next nine years nothing is on record in regard to his movements. We first hear of him again at Kingston, where, 2 Mar 1669, he sued Cornelis Barentsen ~~xx~~ Slecht for 64 ~~grix~~ ~~dark~~ schepels of wheat, Cornelis Fynhout for 10 guilders and Gerrit Foocken for 24 schepels of wheat. (Kingston Rec., 1:543.) This does not, however, necessarily indicate that he was ~~then~~ a resident of Kingston. In all probability, he was then living in Albany.

Lawrence married Elbertje, daughter of Evert Luycassee Backer (see note 1) and Jannetje (or Emmetje) Volkertse, some time before 1670, for 13 Jan 1669/70 he appeared as attorney for his father-in-law in an action at Albany. His mother-in-law, Jannetje Volkertse, appears to have been a lady with a very sharp tongue which was constantly getting her into trouble, and a variety of legal proceedings were the consequence. It is a pity that the records of these cases are written in the almost undecipherable "black letter Dutch", and that we must wait till they have been either transliterated or translated before we can ascertain what it was all about.

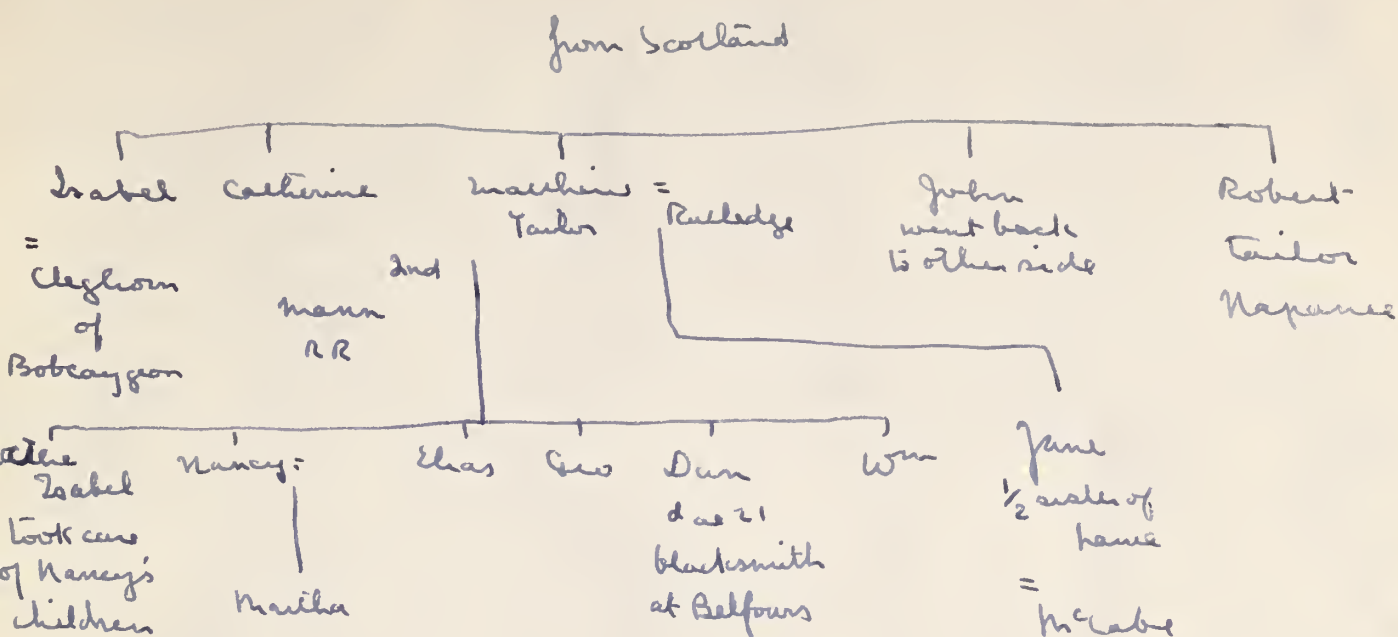

Evert Backer was the owner, in whole or in part, of considerable tracts of land at Kinderhook, Lawrence's elder brother Peter being one of his associates. Lawrence's connection with Kinderhook appears to date from his marriage ~~with~~ to "the only daughter and sole heir" of Evert Luycassee, but the first evidence of the actual ownership by him of land in this locality is found in an instrument executed at Albany 7 Oct 1669 wherein Tittawitt, a Mahickander Indian, acknowledges that he has sold to Lawrence van Alen a certain piece of land in Kinderhook, "stretching to the Clyne Laek", for which Lawrence has agreed to pay with certain articles, including axes, an adz and a quantity of gunpowder and lead. (Alb. Co. § 4:259.) In 1671 Robert Orteers (Orchard), master hatter, and Jannetje Donckertse, widow of Thomas Paulus, sold to Henry Coenrats (van Bon) a piece of land to the west of the kill behind Kinderhook, extending inland along a brook and bounded to the south by lands of Lourens van Alen. (Alb. Co., 2:804). 21 Sep 1673 Hendrick Marselis, dwelling behind Kinderhook, became surety for his son-in-law, Matthys Coenrats, for moneys advanced to the latter by Lourens van Alen, pledging a mare, a heifer and a quantity of grain. (Alb. Co., 1:229). Lawrence's activities as administrator of the estate of his brother Peter have already been described, and reference to them in this place is unnecessary.

stricken down to his bed about eleven o'clock a.m., and passed peacefully away at 6.30 p.m. His career was bright and rapid, he was well cultured and attractive, and his

Walhalla, stating there was not a person in the little town who did not know Emery, and respected him for a good, kind, earnest, honorable fellow. He will indeed be regretted.
The funeral took place at his father's

THE LATE EMERY A. SHARPE.

One of the most sorrowful deaths that has been recorded for years in our midst was that of Emery A. Sharpe, son of John G. Sharpe, of Ernesttown. On Friday evening, Oct. 8th, 1909, at 6.30 p.m., in his room at the Hotel Metropole, Walhalla, N.D., Emery passed to his eternal rest, at the early age of 35 years, 7 months and 10 days. He has been from his former home in Ernesttown about thirteen years, ten years of which he has spent in and around Walhalla. In youth he got his education and laid up those stores of knowledge which were to be of use to him in the journey through life. However, it seemed there was a vacancy on High that needed Emery's attention, and his journey here was made short. Last winter he spent at home with his aged father, who knew at that time his son's health was failing, and advised him to spend the summer at home, but Emery was in such a demand at the electric light plant, Walhalla, that he deemed it necessary to go west again on the 7th of March, and stayed at his post as engineer of the plant until Sept. 3d, when health failed completely. At once arrangements were made to start for home but strength failing him so rapidly, in this he was denied. For a number of years he has been suffering from a kelloid on the face, which eating through the tissues of the throat, went to the lungs and produced tuber-

CLARENCE LUCAS SHARP

The funeral of Clarence Lucas Sharp, 87, who died recently after a four-month illness at Rideaucrest Home for the Aged where he was living, took place by cremation in Toronto.

Mr. Sharp was born at Morven, the son of Luke Sharp and Catharine Bell and was a farmer there until 1936. He lived in Kingston for 34 years and was in real estate here until 1964.

He was active at his church, Queen Street United, and was a member of the Masonic Order.

Mr. Sharp is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lottie Bell Sharp, sister, Mrs. A. P. Stanley of Toronto; and brother, Dr. F. B. Sharp, also of Toronto.

MRS. JULIA WILSON

Burial was in Cataract Cemetery for Mrs. Julia Wilson, 90, 36 Erindale avenue, Toronto, who died there recently following a one-week illness.

She was born in Manchester, Eng., a daughter of the late Thomas Case and his wife Hannah, but had been a resident for 35 years at 87 Barrack Street, Toronto.

OBITUARY

DR. C. C. SHARP

8 Feb 1967
A retired dentist and former cafeteria owner, Dr. C. Clifford Sharp died recently in Havre de Grace, Maryland. He was born at Bath, 76 years ago, a son of the late John B. Sharp, and his wife, the former Augusta Brown.

Among the survivors is a brother, Irwin Sharp, of Napanee.

Dr. Sharp was a graduate of the Baltimore Dental College in 1919 and practised in Havre de Grace until 1925, when he bought cafeterias in Ocean Grove, New Jersey, and St. Petersburg, Florida. He returned to his practice in Havre de Grace in 1945 but retired a few years later due to ill-health. He leaves his wife, the former Annie Seneca Greenleaf, and a son, Stephen, and daughter, Mrs. William Roberts, both of Havre de Grace.

The Christmas meeting of Mount Pleasant Pioneer WI was held the afternoon of Dec. 1, at the home of Mrs. Milton Dafoe, and Mrs. Jack Dafoe.

Following the Ode and Mary Stewart Collect the roll call was "Exchange of Christmas Gifts." Minutes were read and approved with Mrs. Manlev Hart as secretary. Mrs. W. Hudson gave the treasurer's report.

Sick cards were sent out and money donated for the sick in hospital for gifts. Current events were given.

A travelling apron, donated by Mrs. Rosenblath, was shown.

Mrs. Jack Dafoe gave a reading on Christmas and Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Dafoe each won a contest on the Christmas theme.

Mrs. M. Dafoe and Mrs. J. Dafoe served lunch. They were thanked by Mrs. T. Uens. God Save the Queen closed the meeting.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Enclosed is data on the Lent, Sharp, and Storm families. This was copied from the N. Y. Gen. & Biog. Record. I realize that it is very little, and probably of no value to you. The book review on the Storm family was too lengthy for me to copy by hand so I had the library make a copy of it (n/c to you). As time permits I will continue to search the N. Y. Record and other sources. Do not hesitate to write me regarding any old or new problems that you might have. At least I will make an effort to try and help you. Our material at the Rochester Public Library is limited, but probably more voluminous than that at the Kingston Public Library or Queens. I don't know how often you get to Ottawa or Toronto, or even New York City.

Among the tombstone inscriptions that you have copied in the nearby cemeteries did you find any of the following names -- RANDALL or RANDOLPH etc; LARAWAY; and KELLER. If so at your convenience will you please send them to me.

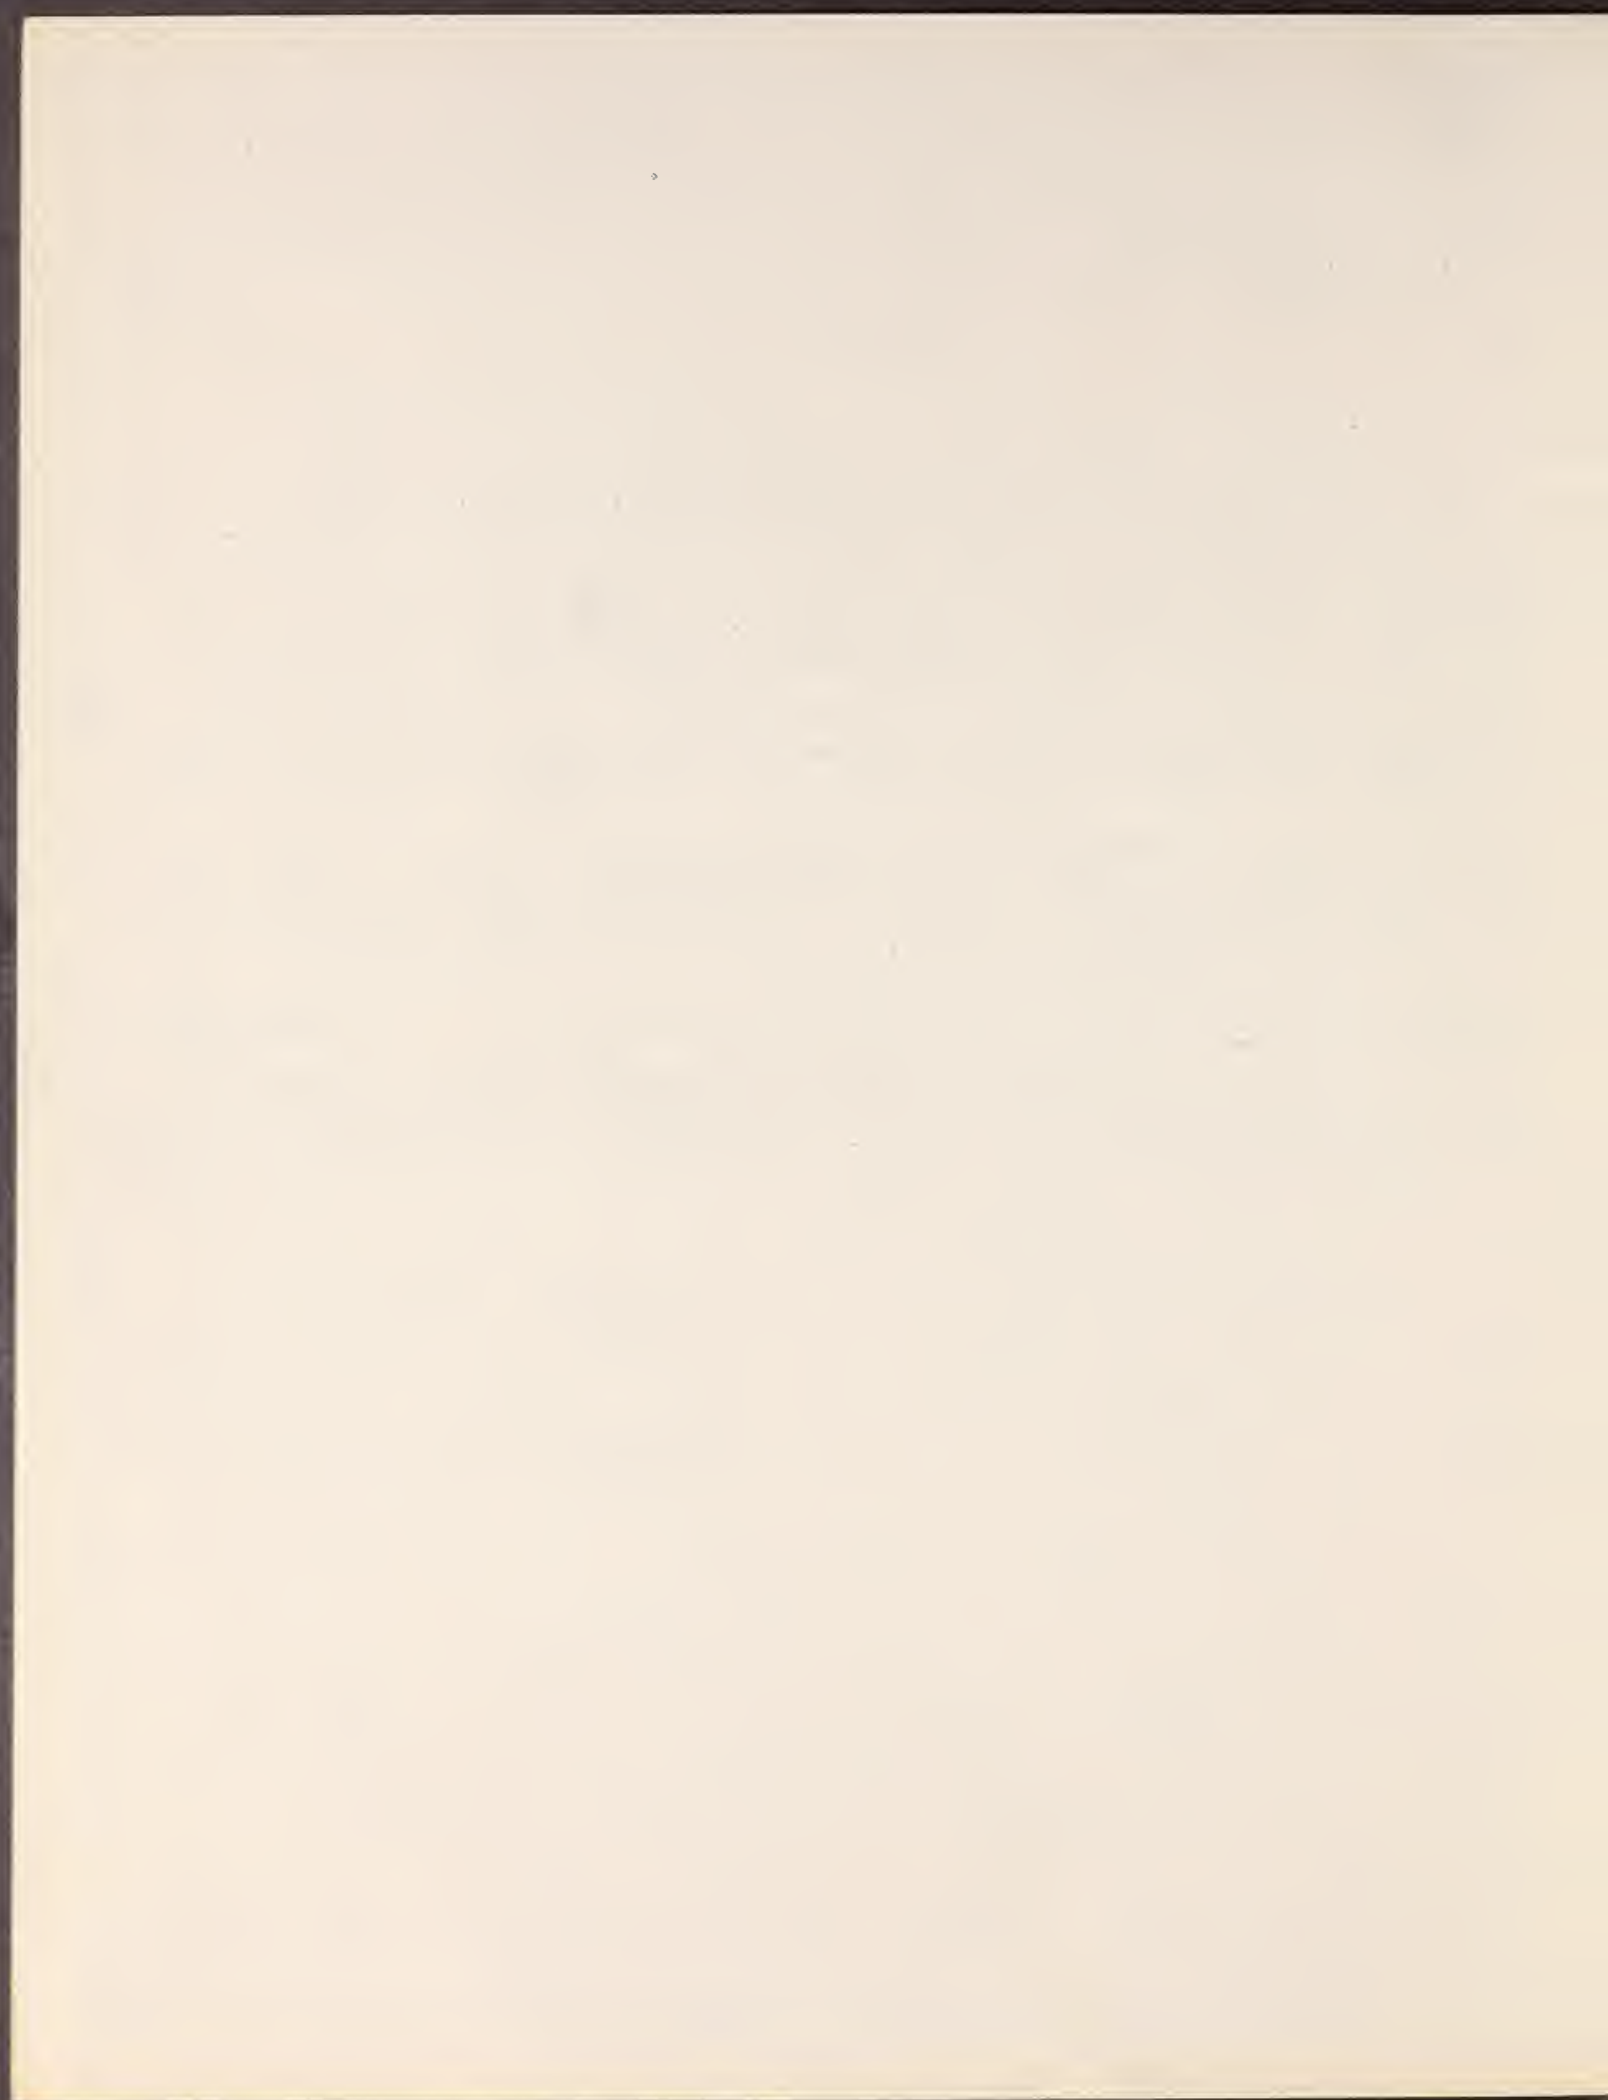

Did you ever find your Randolph line from James Randolph of Odesa, Ont.

In regards to the Van Valkenburg family data compiled by Miss Pearl Van Valkenburg of the University of Rochester. Miss Pearl-Van Valkenburg died in April 1949. I will try to contact the librarian at the UofR in regards to her papers.

Sincerely yours,

Howard Randall

Did you ever subscribe to the Guardian been thinking about it.*

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Enclosed is some data on the Scharp family of Kinderhook. Also of mention of the name of Storm & Lent. The index of this book was not very good. I had to go through it page by page.

As time permits I shall continue the search for the names you are interested in. I shall be happy to send you any data I can. I am very grateful to you for favors received. So please don't mention any fee at any time.

I have a copy of the Loyalist Claims , Ont. Archives year 1904. Also Vols #1 & 2 (1899-1900) Ont. Hist. Soc. Pub.. The - Story of Old Kingston by Machar, Settlement Of Upper Canada by Canniff, Kingston The Kings Town by Roy, and Royal Fort Frontenac by Preston. I am a member of the Ont. Hist. Soc. and the Kingston Hist. Soc.. Can you tell me what ever happened to the Genealogical - Society of Upper Canada. I am very much interested in the history & genealogy of Upper Canada. I will join the U. E. L. branch at Adolphus-town. Do you have any other suggestions of organizations to join, or of people to contact who are interested in history and genealogy of Upper Canada. Just remembered that I just subscribed to the Pedigree pub. by George Heath of Hamilton, Ontario.

I wish you and yours a very Happy New Year.

Sincerely,

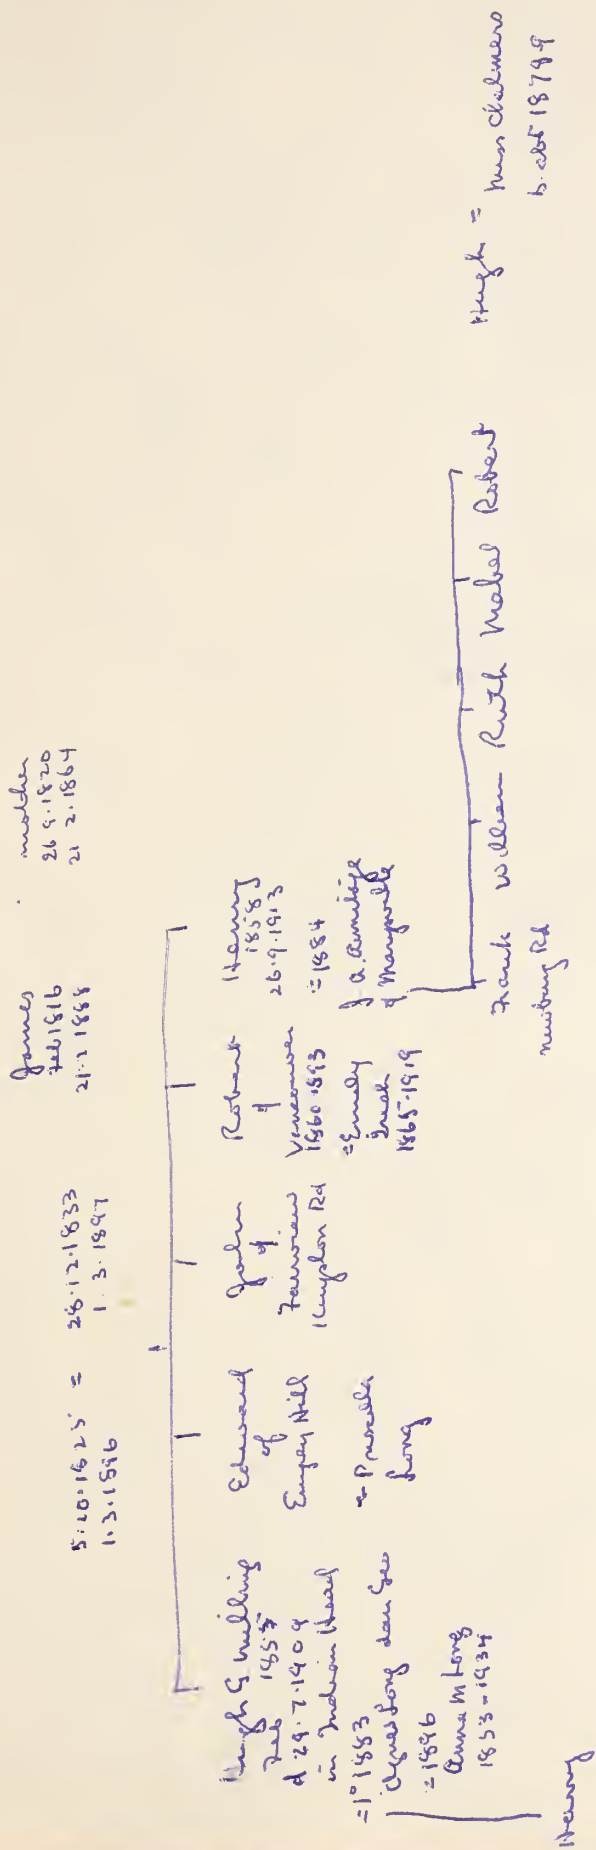

Howard Randall
